Applications are invited from early career researchers and global health professionals in the field of tropical medicine or global health for the RSTMH small grant.

The grant will enable successful applicants to undertake clinical or scientific research or fieldwork, as stand-alone projects or distinct elements within a larger project.

Grants are worth £5,000.

Priority will be given to applications that focus on the following thematic areas:

- Neglected tropical diseases, with a particular focus on their overlap with non-communicable diseases and the Sustainable Development Goals
- Malaria, with a particular focus on drug resistance
- One Health and wider planetary health. The consideration of human health alongside animal health, and the environment, in the context of social, economic and political factors
- Topical issues including, but not limited to, emerging diseases
- Drug resistant infections
