Application Deadline: April 27, 2018

Are you an early to mid career researcher and would like to connect with other researchers across disciplines?

Leicester Institute for Advanced Studies \(LIAS\) [8] Fellowship Scheme is open and receiving proposals from researchers who wish to work across disciplinary boundaries and build strong personal partnerships.

Fellows will be expected to be based at Leicester for between one and three months. Fellowship activities include:

- Engagement in interdisciplinary research with colleagues across disciplines
- Training events aimed at developing interdisciplinary activity
- Development of grant applications with University of Leicester staff
- Development of academic publications in high impact journals, or world-class monographs/books
- Public events - Workshops, performances, seminars, exhibitions and lectures
- Cross-university or cross-sector meetings
- Collaborative activity with other LIAS Fellows, Networks or Tiger Teams - Novel ways of exploring collaborative opportunities across difference disciplines
- Podcasts, images, videos or other multimedia
- Provocation and working papers

Applicant Fellow must be nominated by a permanent University of Leicester academic staff member. Interested Fellows can send an email to (lias@le.ac.uk [9]) to get contacts to University of Leicester staff members.
